

The Career Chronicles

April 2025

As the academic year transitions into its next phase, it's a time when students look up to educators and counselors not just for academic support, but for clarity and direction in their career journeys.

In this month's edition of The Career Chronicles, we bring you actionable insights to empower your students and engage their parents meaningfully.

Let's dive in!

Careers in Anthropology

Beyond Research and Academia

Prof. R. P. Mitra Professor of Social Anthropology at University of Delhi

Anthropology is the study of human societies, cultures, and their development. But did you know that it also offers diverse career opportunities beyond research and academia?

Watch as Prof. R. P. Mitra shares insight on scope of Anthropology as a career.

Implementing Career Guidance Programs across Schools in India

Bansal Public School

Bansal Public School, Jaipur

iDC has partnered with Bansal Public School, as a part of which, students and parents will have access to expert career planning sessions, psychometric assessments, and one-on-one counseling, ensuring personalized guidance tailored to each student's strengths and aspirations.

Mount Olympus School, Gurgaon

iDC has partnered with Mount Olympus School to implement a need-based career guidance program for students from Grades 9 to 12 over the next three years. As a part of this initiative, students will get access to a vast database of 560+ career pathways, 1000+ exam information & 1100+ scholarships. We also organised a workshop to commence this partnership and discussed subject and stream selection with students and parents.

March 2025 Highlights

Engaging Parents at SRS International

Our recent parents interaction session at SRS International School, Faridabad saw highly engaged parents discussing the evolving world of careers. Conversations spanned across informed decision-making, interdisciplinary opportunities, and how to prepare students for a dynamic workforce.

iDC at the Jaipur History Festival

We were thrilled to participate in the Jaipur History Festival, themed around Mental Health and Well-Being. Led by Sandeep Sethi, Director of Education, City Palace, it was attended by 40-50 key stakeholders, including principals and counselors, and offered an excellent opportunity to build new relationships.

Empowering Informed Futures at PPSVK Delhi

We conducted a Career Planning Orientation at Poorna Prajna Public School (PPSVK), Delhi, engaging both Grade XI students and their parents in an insightful session on career awareness and subject choices.

Led by our Director – School Programs & University Partnerships, Ms. Meenu Arora, the session explored evolving career trends, decision-making frameworks, and how students can align their aspirations with future opportunities.

Guiding Students through CUET Applications

We hosted a dedicated CUET UG 2025 guidance session under our iDC Connect series, led by our expert counselor, Ojshi Sharma. Designed to support students through the crucial application phase, the session covered everything from form-filling basics to subject selection strategies and eligibility criteria. Through such timely interventions, we continue to empower students with the right information to navigate their academic journey successfully.

As the academic year nears its close, our resolve to support schools, educators, and students in their career journeys only grows stronger. Let's continue building a future where every learner is guided, every choice is informed, and every potential is realized.
