April 2025 Highlights

Parent Session at Cambridge School, Indirapuram

In a powerful session with parents, we explored the building blocks of career decision-making — aptitude, interests, personality, and values. Discussions also focused on the evolving world of work and how an interdisciplinary mindset and proactive parental support can empower students to make confident choices.

Profile Building Session at Cambridge School, Srinivaspuri

We demystified the concept of profile building for students, highlighting how to choose the right activities based on individual interests and goals. The session stressed that quality trumps quantity—encouraging students to pursue meaningful experiences that reflect their personal journeys.

Career Planning Orientation in Bansal Public School, Jaipur

For parents, we unpacked how understanding their child's inherent strengths can shape career direction. The session also introduced emerging industries and the skills required to thrive in a fast-changing world. The focus for students was on self-awareness, helping them explore who they are and how that connects to their academic and career decisions.

As the academic year nears its close, our resolve to support schools, educators, and students in their career journeys only grows stronger. Let's continue building a future where every learner is guided, every choice is informed, and every potential is realized.
